

BE THE CHANGE

HOW TO GET WHAT YOU WANT IN YOUR COMMUNITY

Thomas Linzey with Anneke Campbell

INSPIRED BY FIVE TRUE STORIES of communities who were tired of corporate political power entitlements running roughshod over their townships, Be the Change offers solutions for how individuals can stand up and take back their local governments.

Thomas Linzey, a graduate of Widener University School of Law, is the cofounder of both the Daniel Peacock Democracy School and the Community Environmental Legal Defense Fund. He is a frequent presenter to groups and governments, including Bioneers. He lives in Spokane, Washington.

Anneke Campbell is a writer and documentary filmmaker who has worked for many years to advance the causes of justice and respect for all humanity and the environment. She lives in Venice, California.

How-to steps for community empowerment
